ARCHITECTURAL SIGNIFICANCE (Describe important architectural features and evaluate in terms of other buildings within the community.)

This house, when converted from a barn to a house, was given Colonial Revival trim of a pedimented entrance and wall dormers.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE (Explain the role owners played in local or state history and how the building relates to the development of the community.)

For a history of the house to which this barn was attached, see 32 Vine Brook Road form. The building was moved to this site from Massachusetts Avenue in 1941.
